

Autumn in Austin

Time to give serious thought to the years ending and to come.

Today's empowering thoughts are taken from As A Man Thinketh by James Allen

"The greatest achievement was at first and for a time a dream. The oak sleeps in the acorn; the bird waits in the egg; and in the highest vision of the soul a waking angel stirs. Dreams are the seedlings of realities. Your circumstances may be uncongenial, but they shall not long remain so if you but perceive an ideal and strive to reach it. You cannot travel within and stand still without."

Now is the time to take stock of your current results and recognize that they simply reflect what you have been thinking for some time...maybe this past week, this past year or maybe your entire life. If you want to know what you have been thinking, download the FACESHAPES PDF from the following link:

and really examine your own visage. If you don't like what you see, just remember how many times the face shape of a baby changes. It seems to happen daily. You can create something different for yourself at any time. The new results will show in your face, your step, your handshake and your body.

Creation proceeds from order followed by movement. You are a creative being, so get to work on the orderly thinking part of the equation. You'll be surprised how quickly you are able to create some amazing opportunities. Cool weather naturally encourages us to think about ourselves and our families. Instead of hibernation, think of recreation...really look at that word..."re-creation". Relax and get thinking!

MindTamers Razor's Edge

Note New Questionnaire Due Date of November 21, 2008!

My name is Dr. Lori Barr and years ago I found myself in that same situation. Luckily, I had mentors to guide me until I could clearly see the path to my goal. I have used these tips in many different areas of my life and once mastered, they absolutely work. After I saw how valuable these steps were in changing my life, I founded MindTamers, a company focused on teaching the same steps to anyone seeking a higher understanding of the achievement of their unlimited potential.

Now, this is a very unique time in the history of our company. I am about to personally embark on a goal so big that it excites me and scares me at the same time. I will use the same process to achieve this goal that I have used to achieve many goals with regard to my health, financial security, social success, spiritual growth and personal development. I am inviting you to join me and learn these steps through a year-long mentoring program called MindTamers Razor's Edge.

This program is not for everyone. I only want to work with individuals who are able to make decisions, understand that they are responsible for their success and know that luck is really the meeting of a prepared individual and an opportunity. I only want to work with individuals who are willing to listen to a mentor and to follow instructions even if the instructions seem rather silly at the time. I only want to work with people who are ready to move forward in an area of their life and will not waste energy looking back or for a way out. If you are ready to quit worrying about all the current events that are scaring your associates and friends and to move forward toward your burning desire, then you should seriously consider becoming my protégée.

This opportunity, to be aligned with a successful mentor while the mentor is moving through an exponential level of growth only occurs occasionally. Recognize the opportunity and prepare yourself for meaningful change. Your associates and friends will think you have suddenly become the luckiest person they know. You will leave the program with a deep understanding of how to create your own luck any time you choose.

If this message resonates with you, it is not an accident. You used the Law of Attraction to find me, a willing mentor with a deep understanding of the knowledge you need to move forward. Take the next step and contact me so you may receive a questionnaire to assess your readiness for the Razor's Edge and an invitation to learn more about this life-changing opportunity. Contact me at (512) 852-4357 or at lori@mindtamers.com. Your questionnaire must be completed by November 21, 2008 to be considered for the program which will start with introductory work in December and in earnest in January. I wish you the success your potential desires.
